HALLOWEEN PARADE PLANS BEING FORMED

The Gettysburg Exchange Club at its meeting Tuesday evening at the Hemlock Inn, near Arendtsville, voted to sponsor the Junior Float Division of the annual Halloween parade here by donating $85 for the prizes to be given in that division.

Reports at the meeting showed the Halloween committee has asked various clubs and other organizations to assist in the sponsorship of the annual parade by providing prize money for individual divisions of the parade. Replies have been slow, and the committee is seeking to secure sponsors for the various divisions as quickly as possible in order to be able to complete plans for the annual procession. It is hoped that a larger parade will be booked long before October to permit units to plan to participate.

President Wayne Kump announced that the annual whip party will be held by the club next Tuesday evening at the cottage of Frank Groft in The Narrows. The club voted to invite the wives of the members to the party which until this year has been a stag affair. The "Whip Party" is an annual event held by the club which is financed by fines levied by the whip on members during the preceding year.

Plans were formulated for the club to entertain the Big-Little League baseball team sponsoring by the club at the Marsh Creek cottage of Philip Neth on July 28.

Eisenhower Pleads For Unity At GOP Convention

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—promise of its future," he said. Eisenhower declared that "strength is found in unity, under a consensus broad enough to accommodate the honest thinking of all who subscribe to our basic doctrines."

Eisenhower has refused to take sides in the battle over the picking of the party's presidential candidate or the writing of a platform. He frequently has described himself as someone to whom all factions seem willing to turn for counsel.

After his address, he was presented with the Republican Convention Badge of Honor by Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooks, a Negro who holds the highest elective office in the nation of any member of his race.

Brooks described Eisenhower as a man who has been a leader of the nation in war and peace.

Goldwater Has Runaway Lead For GOP Nomination

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater loped toward the finish line today in his race for the Republican presidential nomination, so far ahead of Gov. William W. Scranton that he wasn't even winded.

Goldwater's first-ballot vote strength passed the 800 level Tuesday, according to The Associated Press survey. By the called tonight the Arizona senator could have many more.

With 655 needed to nominate, Goldwater had 805 votes in the AP poll compared with 169 for Scranton, his nearest challenger.

HAS 805 VOTES

The survey, based on primary election commitments, instructions, pledges and stated preferences, showed this first-ballot breakdown:

Goldwater	805
Scranton	169
Nelson A. Rockefeller	108
Henry Cabot Lodge	44
Margaret Chase Smith	20
Favorite sons	112
Uncommitted	50
Goldwater's total included 118 committed by primary elections, 257 by convention instructions, 60 personally pledged and 370 who favor him but are not committed. None of Scranton's votes are pledged or bound.

Mother Of Two Has Open Safety Pin Removed From Her Lung After 14 Years

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Virginia Leavy, attractive, 37-year-old mother of two, had an open safety pin in her lung for 14 years but didn't know it.

Doctors at Pittsburgh's Mercy Hospital removed it and Tuesday Mrs. Leavy sat on the edge of her hospital bed and said she felt fine.

Mrs. Leavy, of nearby Greensburg, said she swallowed the pin in 1949 or 1950—"I'm not sure which"—while preparing her infant son for a trip.

"I held the open pin in my mouth for a minute while dressing him—you know, one of those small, gold-colored pins for ribbons and things," she said.

LED ACTIVE LIFE

Then she swallowed it—still open. She tried to cough it up. She called a doctor, who told her it would probably pass out of her system and not to worry as long as there was no pain. Mrs. Leavy pursued an active life over the next years, swimming, playing badminton, hiking, doing housework and smoking.

Last month after a busy day she "suddenly felt something in my chest."

When she started coughing up blood she called her doctor. A chest X-ray followed and located the pin in her lung, still open. At first, doctors passed a bronchoscope—a narrow, tube-like instrument—through her mouth and windpipe. The bronchoscope was monitored by television.

HEAD BREAKS OFF

Aided by the bronchoscope, doctors reached into her lung with a special forceps. But the pin, which over the years had become embedded in tissue, wouldn't move. The head broke and was withdrawn.

That was a week ago. Monday they tried again and in a slow, painstaking maneuver brought the pin up. It was badly rusted. Mrs. Leavy said she plans to continue her activities such as swimming, badminton and volleyball. But she stopped smoking so as not to irritate her lungs during convalescence. She says she won't take it up again.

COUNCIL SEEKS OPERATOR FOR SEWAGE PLANT

The Biglerville borough council will continue to receive applications for a part-time position at the sewage treatment plant following the resignation of Wayne Hill, who has accepted other employment. The board met Tuesday evening in the borough office.

The position involves the care and maintenance of the sewage treatment plant.

Council members warned that action will be taken to collect delinquent sewer accounts and that liens will be placed on properties if owners fail to pay the accounts. Property owners were advised to notify council in writing if they wish sewer service discontinued on unoccupied buildings.

WILL CUT WEEDS

The safety committee reported that several vacant lots within the borough are covered with weeds, which the borough will cut within two weeks and will bill the property owner for the service.

Trace Engineers reported that a water softener is being used on an experimental basis to prevent clogging of the chlorinator and said that all mechanical equipment at the treatment plant is operating satisfactorily.

Council members approved the payment of bills totaling $841.08 from the general account and $2,516.14 from the sewer account.

LITTLESTOWN SCHOOL BOARD FILLS POSTS

The board voted to purchase student insurance from Yoffee and Beitman, Harrisburg insurance firm, at $2 per pupil, a saving of a dollar each over last year's contract with another firm, and hired David Reaver as a janitor at a salary of $3,300.

President Mackley named three members to fill committee posts vacated by the resignations of members of the Mt. Joy Twp. board as the result of the township division. Charles Shildt was named to the public relations committee; Carroll Reed will serve on the teacher committee, and Aaron Rohrbaugh will serve on the transportation committee. They succeeded Stanley Wolf, Rex Maddox and John Clapsaddle, respectively, who reside in the northern portion of the township.

Mackley also appointed Clyde W. Crouse to represent the Littlestown board on the legislative council of the Pennsylvania School Board Association.

King stated that the school buses were operated for 69,000 miles last year at a cost of $15,215. The treasurer reported that total expenses for the school year were $480,854. A balance of $5,108 remained in the treasury after bills amounting to $41,387.62 were approved for payment.

LET CONTRACT FOR STADIUM, TRACK SITE

The Hanover Construction Company has been awarded a $10,000 contract to prepare the site for erection of the Musselman Stadium at Gettysburg College, Stanley G. Hoffman, business manager of the college, announced today. He said work is expected to begin next week on the 45-acre area of the former Gillin and Essex Wire Co. properties near the Western Maryland Railroad tracks south of W. Lincoln Ave.

Hanover Construction was the lowest of five bidders and will clear and drain the area prior to grading and laying out the track section. Some of the seeding will be done this year, Hoffman said, and the site will be allowed to settle before bleachers are erected.

The 6,000-seat stadium was made possible by a $250,000 grant last January from the Emma G. Musselman Foundation and will be available for college and community use. It will be constructed of concrete, steel and wood and will be ready for use in 1965.

Hoffman said that plans for the bleachers will be studied about January 1, 1965, and subsequent contracts will be awarded for the final phase of the project.

A "master plan" for the 10 theological seminaries of the Lutheran Church in America was adopted at its second biennial convention in Pittsburgh.

The plan recommends "the temporary continuance of the present number and location" of the seminaries with certain modifications involving the merger and/or relocation of five schools.

In effect, the master plan endorses the present location of seminaries in Philadelphia, Chicago, Berkeley, Calif.; Columbia, S. C.; and Waterloo, Ont., Canada. The long-range future of seminaries in Gettysburg, Pa.; Springfield, O.; Minneapolis, Fremont, Neb., and Saskatoon, Sask., Canada, is uncertain.

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

In a series of resolutions, the convention:

Urged the Gettysburg and Philadelphia seminaries to work toward unification of their schools in a university setting. The latter seminary recently voted to relocate near the University of Pennsylvania.

Requested the authorities of Hama Divinity School at Springfield, O., to explore the possibility of merger with the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago or with the Evangelical Lutheran Theological Seminary at Columbus, O.

(The LCA's Lutheran School of Theology, now operating on campuses at Maywood and Rock Island, Ill., will locate on a site adjacent to the campus of the University of Chicago. The Columbus seminary is affiliated with the American Lutheran Church.)

Encouraged Northwestern Lutheran Theological Seminary in Minneapolis to proceed with plans to relocate on the campus of Lutheran Theological Seminary in St. Paul. Luther is a school of the ALC.

PUSH NEGOTIATIONS

Supported continued negotiations by Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary at Berkeley, Calif., with the ALC "looking to joint support and control of the seminary by the two churches."

Approved the proposed merger of the LCA and ALC seminaries at Saskatoon, Sask., Canada, as "a significant and promising move."

Asked the Board of Theological Education to bring recommendations concerning the future of Central Lutheran Theological Seminary at Fremont, Neb., to the 1966 convention of the church.

The board was also authorized to approve arrangements for and cooperation between the seminaries of the LCA and those of other American Lutheran church bodies, "preferably in a university environment."

UNIVERSITY AREA

Major debate on the master plan centered on the board's preference to have LCA seminaries

BOARD AGREES TO AID STUDENT DESPITE FIGHT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The city's Board of Education has decided to condemn the conduct, Haverford College sophomore who wants to send medical supplies to the Communist Viet Cong guerrilla forces in Vietnam.

The youth, Russell D. Stetler Jr., of Philadelphia, was among five Haverford students who announced in April that they were seeking money for medical aid to the guerrillas.

The board acted on the recommendation of Joseph G. Feldman, who headed a three-man committee which conducted two public hearings on the scholarship.

Feldman said that ambiguities exist in the condition of good conduct upon which the school board's grant is contingent. Although his committee "specifically and emphatically condemns Stetler's conduct," Feldman stated in his report, it "reluctantly recommends that Stetler be allowed to retain his scholarship."

He urged the board to rewrite conditions for future student aid.

In hearings before the committee, Stetler and the four other students contended that the U.S. was supporting a totalitarian regime in South Viet Nam, and that medical aid to the Viet Cong was a humanitarian act both legal and traditional in America.

College officials said they were satisfied with Stetler's conduct, and Stetler said the Board of Education should accept the institution's appraisal of his behavior.

Feldman noted that although Stetler's conduct was subject to the approval of the board itself, there was no infraction severe enough to warrant a suspension of the scholarship.

The gypsy moth has caused much damage in the northern states, and the traps are scheduled to notify national authorities when the first of the moths reach here in an effort to stop their southward movement.

First Woman Is Nominated For President

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—For the first time in the history of any major party, the name of a woman will be placed in nomination today for president of the United States.

It will be Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, who has no chance at all. Her known delegate strength: 17 out of the 1,308 delegates to the Republican National Convention.

Nevertheless, Mrs. Smith, 66, has had a convention hotel headquarters like all the other presidential hopefuls, and committees for Margaret Chase Smith are buttonholing delegates and planning a floor demonstration in her behalf.

Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont will nominate his neighbor, longtime friend and Senate colleague. Among those who will second the nomination will be Maine's governor, John H. Reed.

2 OTHERS TRIED

Although no major party ever put in the name of a woman for the presidential race, there were two women in minor parties who tried to make it on their own, almost a century ago.

In 1872, Victoria Claflin Woodhull ran for the National Radical Reformers. In 1884 and 1888, Belva Ann Lockwood, a Washington lawyer, was the nominee of the National Equal Rights party.

Mrs. Smith entered three primaries—New Hampshire, Illinois and Oregon—and did her campaigning weekends and at odd times so she would not break her record of never missing a Senate roll call since 1955. She said her campaign cost $335.

BOARD TO MEET

The Gettysburg Recreation Board will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at its office in the Junior High School, Secretary Mrs. Janet Wickerham has announced.

CORPS MEETS JULY 21

The Adams County Ambulance Corps will meet July 21 at 8 o'clock at the East Berlin fire house. Eugene Long, Gettysburg R. 5, is chairman and Sterling Roth, Biglerville, is secretary.

located in a university environment.

After prolonged debate, delegates voted that the church "express its preference for relating future development in seminary life to a university environment."

In another action, the board was directed to study the program and the content of theological education in university and nondenominational schools of theology "to assess the degree to which theological education of Lutheran students in such centers adequately prepares them for the ministry of the Lutheran Church in America."

The master plan of location of theological seminaries is to be reviewed by the 1970 convention of the LCA. In the interim, the Board of Theological Education will report to biennial conventions on what progress is being made to attain or accelerate the program.

APPLY FOR LICENSE

Larry James McIntire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale F. McIntire, 131 Main St., McSherrystown, and Doris Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Smith, Hanover R. 4, have applied for a wedding license in the office of the county clerk of courts.

URGE FASTER CHANGES IN SEWER PLANT

Greater speed in making necessary additions and renovations to the community's sewage treatment plant has been urged upon McSherrystown by the Pennsylvania Department of Health.

The McSherrystown council, at its regular meeting Monday night, was informed the town has received a 30-day notice to apply for a permit for work to remedy the situation.

The council took no action, although borough engineer, William E. Sees Jr., suggested that certain procedures be followed and application for the permit be made.

DEFER POLICE CASE

Mayor Edward deCheubell recommended that council seriously consider selection of a chief of police to succeed Manard Masemer, who was relieved of his post by council action in April. However, Solicitor Ronald L. Hagarman advised action should be deferred since the Masemer appeal from suspension is now before the Adams County court.

Mayor deCheubell complimented extra policemen serving the community for doing "an extraordinary job."

The council was informed by Fire Chief Eugene Murren that 37 organizations have accepted invitations to participate in the firemen's parade at McSherrystown Aug. 22. Murren urged council's cooperation in arrangements for the parade, a feature of the 75th annual convention of the Cumberland Valley Firemen's Association.

TO SURVEY ALLEY

Borough Engineer Sees was authorized to survey Ridge Alley, from Fourth St. to Stambaugh St. in connection with a proposal by property owners that the alley be accepted by the borough. Attorney Hagarman informed council that the alley had been dedicated by an ordinance in 1900, but if it had not been used as public alley for 21 years thereafter the ordinance did not apply. Since the status of the alley could not be proved, he said, the dedication procedure must be performed again.

Councilman Donald Krepps, chairman of the street committee, reported work on South St. has not been progressing as scheduled because gas line repairs are being made following placing of sewer mains in a neighboring area.

WILL ERECT NEW CHURCH

Work is expected to get underway within the next two weeks on construction of a new $200,000 church for Paradise (Holtzschwamm) United Church of Christ congregation.

C. M. Gross, Dover R. 5, has been awarded the general contract for the church to be built on a 16-acre tract of land along the Lincoln highway.

Rev. Charles E. Strasbaugh, pastor, said Tuesday night that the Gross bid was approved at a congregational meeting Sunday. It was the lowest of six proposals opened last Thursday night at a meeting of the consistory and building committee. The new church, which will be a one-story brick structure, will include fellowship and Sunday School facilities, a church office and pastor's study. The main church auditorium will have a seating capacity of 200, with an overflow area for about 60 persons.

The project is expected to be completed by May, 1965, Rev. Strasbaugh said. The 240-member congregation will continue to worship at the Thomasville Fire company hall until the building is completed. Worship services have been conducted there since the dissolution of the union status with the Lutheran congregation at Holtzschwamm Church in February, 1963.

PAYS FINE, COSTS

Gordon Shull, Mason, Mich., pleaded guilty Monday evening to a charge of failing to yield one-half the highway brought by state police before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, and paid a fine of $10 and costs. The charge followed an auto accident about 6 o'clock Monday evening at the intersection of the Lincoln Highway and a township road in Cumberland Twp. Details of the accident were not immediately available from the state police substation here.

reported work on South St. has not been progressing as scheduled because gas line repairs are being made following placing of sewer mains in a neighboring area.

Council had its proceedings tape-recorded, a procedure to be followed at all future meetings, it was announced.

Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock a Junior High meeting will be held.

The show will start at 8:30 p.m. The film, "Stonewall Jackson's Way," will be shown. Admission for children six to 12 years will be 25 cents and for above that age group, 75 cents. REDS AMBUSH TRUCK CONVOY IN MOUNTAINS

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A Communist Viet Cong battalion ambushed a Vietnamese government truck convoy rumbling into a mountain valley Tuesday, killing 17 and wounding 21. It was the second major ambush in two days.

On Monday three American officers and 16 Vietnamese were killed north of Saigon in an ambush.

No Americans were with the latest Vietnamese convoy, heading from Tam Ky near South Viet Nam's northeast coast toward the mountain valley of Phuoc Chau when it was hit.

The ambush was further indication that the Communists are increasing their effort in that area. A U.S. military spokesman said Viet Cong activity there "has shifted its center of gravity from the mountains to the coastal area."

Incidents have increased greatly in the past 10 days in the Tam Ky sector. However they are still below incident totals in some other military regions in Viet Nam.

Donation For Child Welfare:

The Adams County commissioners at their weekly meeting voted a $500 appropriation to the Adams County Child Welfare association as the "most economical and most efficient method" of meeting the board's obligation, as successor to the now extinct poor board to look after the welfare of county children. The commissioners had been asked in a letter from the Rev. Dwight F. Putman, president of the child welfare society, for an appropriation from county funds to help meet the association's first year expense budget of $3,000. He did not ask for a specific sum.

Appointed To Relief Board:

Governor Arthur James this morning appointed Lloyd W. Kuhn, Bendersville banker, as a member of the Adams County Public Assistance Board. He will fill the vacancy on the board caused by the refusal of D. C. Jacobs, Ardenville fruit-grower, to accept a reappointment offered by Governor James. His acceptance will bring the board to its full strength of seven members. James B. Aumen is board chairman.

Rosensteel, 13 Steinwehr avenue, became the bride of Jacob Melchior Sheds, North Stratton street, in a single-ring ceremony performed Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the rectory of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. The Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, rector, officiated in the presence of members of the families and close friends. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Dick, York street, and while C. William Zhea, South Washington St., was the best man. Wearing a dusty pink lace dress with hat to match and white accessories, the bride wore a corsage of white lilies and lilies of the valley. After the ceremony there was a reception for the wedding guests at the Rosensteel home. Mrs. Sheds attended St. Joseph's high school at Emmitsburg and recently has been employed at the G. C. Murphy store. The bridegroom, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. Emory Sheds, was graduated from Gettysburg high school in 1922 and from Gettysburg college in 1932 with high scholastic honors. In 1933 he received a master's degree from the college. For the last four years he has been language instructor at the Lincoln school building in Gettysburg. This summer and for the last several summer vacations, he has served as a temporary ranger-historian on the Gettysburg National park staff here. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Sheds will reside at their residence.

Today's TalkCEMENTING FRIENDSHIP

The manner of holding a good friend is simple. First, think well of his good points and put in the background all of his bad ones; in fact ignore them! Everyone has more good points than bad.

Next, always look for the latent qualities. They always exist. The easiest thing in the world is to find fault, or see defects in a friend, but at times it takes real genius to discover great qualities in another. Many a man has come to himself and found his true niche in life through the patient discovering of another.

By always being a friend, and considering the rights of one's friends, friendship ripens and grows richer with the years. Material success should make no difference with one's friend. The greater the friend becomes, the finer should be his friendship and the more appreciative. Fair-weather friends are no friends at all. Mixing up money matters with a friend is also one of the surest ways of losing a friendship and ruining one's chance to become a friend.

Flattery should have no place in friendship. On the other hand, real and substantial appreciation for your friend's qualities and talents is something to bring added joy to him. Without it achievement is indeed empty. Personal triumph entails a heavy test upon friendship, but to him of genuine character and worth, it only adds glow to that triumph.

A great deal of patience is required to hold a friend, for there are situations arising constantly that call for tolerance and control. A real man usually exhibits his good and bad points en masse, so it takes a great deal of consideration to cling only to that which cements friendship, giving to it its lasting qualities.

A few friends, but those of the quality that endures should be our one aim and hope as we wind our way through life.

Tomorrow's subject: "Choose Your Road"

Just FolksTHINKING OVER A DULL DAY

"A dull and dreary day!" I said
As I was tumbling into bed.
And then in those few moments

Sleep came to close the mind to care
I thought a small voice asked of me:

"Did you this morning's sunrise see?"

I wonder if by chance you heard
The lovely music of a bird,

A crimson cardinal on high
Who sang to you as you went by?

"Across the street with news to tell
There walked a man that you know well

Who tried his best to catch your eye
But all unseen you passed him by.

So buried in yourself were you
And all the tasks you had to do

From dawn until the even-fall
No joyous sight can you recall.

And yet about you everywhere
Was much to balance toil and care.

"Had you but walked with eye-sight keen
A thousand charms you might have seen

Which never, as you journeyed on,
You stayed or turned to gaze upon.

Where'er you went today occurred
Much that you neither saw nor heard;

Scenes that had thrilled you through and through
Had you not been so wrapped in you.

Life offered flowers you failed to cull,
The day was bright, but you were dull."

REDS HAVE ONE .300 CLOUTER

CINCINNATI (AP)—For an admitted streak hitter, the Cincinnati Reds' Deron Johnson is mighty consistent with the bat. The husky first baseman is the club's only .300 batter, he hits the long ball and is nifty on the defense.

Johnson, indeed, is the kind of streak hitter every other major league club would like to have. The records show that he went hitless in two consecutive games only six times to date, and only once failed to get a hit for three games in a row.

The 6-foot-2, 200-pound right-hander slugger currently is batting .319, has driven in 35 runs, hit nine homers and 13 doubles. "I have been meeting the ball pretty well and it has been falling safely," the soft-spoken Johnson said Wednesday.

"I also am doing my best to keep from striking out," Johnson, who will be 26 Friday, is like all long-ball hitters. He strikes out frequently.

Westinghouse Tests New Transit Cars

PITTSBURGH (AP)—What's shorter than a subway car, more comfortable, carries fewer persons and operates without a driver on special transit expressways?

Westinghouse Electric Corp. says it's the transit conveyance of the future and the company plans to test one soon at a two-mile strip in nearby South Park. Westinghouse unveiled the prototype Tuesday. It said the cars will be operated electrically from wayside stations along private lines. They will run on eight rubber tires and will be steered along an I-shaped center rail.

The new cars have a seating capacity of 28 with standing room for 42 more. Westinghouse said the new idea is intended to provide greater passenger comfort and convenience.

JACK SANFORD WILL UNDERGO ARM SURGERY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Burlly Jack Sanford, whose pitching was a prime factor in San Francisco's drive to the pennant in 1962, may not pitch another inning for the Giants this season.

The 35-year-old right-hander must undergo surgery on his pitching arm, the team announced Tuesday. The surgery will probably take place later this week.

Doctors said Sanford will be out of action at least six weeks. And they warned it could be longer.

HAS OBSTRUCTION

The operation was ordered after examination showed Sanford is suffering from a six-inch obstruction that impairs circulation in the upper part of his pitching arm. Team physician, Dr. E.C. Sailer said the operation will not involve any bone, bone or ligament.

Traded to the Giants in 1959, Sanford has won 85 and lost 62 in a San Francisco uniform. His over-all major league record is 115-83.

Sanford's biggest season was 1962, when he won 24 games and lost only 7 as the Giants took the pennant.

Last season he won 16 and lost 13. This year he is 5-7.

TOKYO (AP)—Firemen battled through the night to control a huge chemical fire in which 19 firemen were killed and 46 other persons were injured.

The fire and explosions destroyed a storage dump crammed with drums of oil, paint thinner, cellulose nitrate and other combustible chemicals. Damage was estimated at about $280,000.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some 40 guests at the Chesterfield Hotel in North Philadelphia were routed from their rooms Tuesday when fire broke out on the top floor of the five-story building. No one was injured.

Trade Draft Pick To Regain Morze

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers announced Tuesday they have traded an undisclosed draft choice to the Cleveland Browns to regain center Frank Morze.

The 270-pound lineman left the 49ers in mid-1962 after being on the injured reserve list because of a knee injury. Technically he became a free agent during that time and decided to sign with the Browns. Reportedly he was angry because the 49ers demanded he stay below a stipulated weight, a condition termed the "fat man" clause.

Morze originally joined the 49ers in 1957.

DON BUDGE IN HALL OF FAME

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Budge, for almost a quarter of a century the only man to complete amateur tennis' Grand Slam, heads a list of five players and an administrator who are the latest additions to the National Lawn Tennis Hall of Fame.

Budge, along with Alice Marble, George M. Lott, Sidney B. Wood and Frank Shields — all top players from the 1930s — and George Townsend Adee, president of the USLTA from 1916 through 1919, will be inducted into the hall during the week of the Newport Invitational Aug. 10-18.

Budge, who swept the world's four major singles titles, Wimbledon, Forest Hills and the French and Australian championships, and the others were elected Tuesday.

Budge's sweep in 1938 stood alone as one of the great achievements of the sport until it was duplicated by Australia's Rod Laver in 1962.

The Elmira Pioneers came within one out of breaking an all-star team winning streak in the annual Eastern League all-star contest Tuesday night.

But, with two out and men on first and third, second baseman Donnie Nichols grabbed a ground ball off the bat of Wilbur Huckle, of Williamsport, and elected to try a tag of the runner coming into second rather than throw to first base.

The runner, Mike Sinnerud, of York, knocked the ball from his hands and regular season teammate Dalton Renfro loped home from third with the winning run as the All-Stars edged the Pioneers, 2-1. It was the fourth consecutive win for an all-star team in the annual game.

Littlestown, New Oxford and Bendersville will be the opening sites for the first round of the 1964 Adams County Little League baseball tournament, it was announced Tuesday evening at a meeting of county representatives at the Elks home.

Each representative drew for the initial positions in the double elimination bracket. Fairfield will journey to Littlestown, New Oxford will play host to McSherrystown and Gettysburg will go to Bendersville to meet Upper Adams. The first round will get underway on Monday, July 27 and all games will start at 6 o'clock each evening.

ORIOLES DROP ONE-RUN GAME TO NEW YORK

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

The trouble with the Baltimore Orioles is they can't win those one-run ball games.

The trouble is only three days old but it's beginning to tell on the pennant-hungry Orioles. They dropped a 4-3 decision to New York Tuesday night in the opener of a vital three-game set and saw their American League lead dwindle to one-half game over the onrushing Yankees.

The Orioles suddenly have lost their touch in pressure games after reeling off 21 victories in their first 23 one-run contests. They were beaten twice by Detroit—each time by a 4-3 score in 10 innings—before Mickey Mantle, Tom Tresh and Al Downing collaborated for Tuesday night's Yankee victory before a New York crowd of 38,102.

MILLER IS JUNKMAN

Stu Miller, the wily junkman of the Baltimore bullpen, was the victim of eighth inning hits by Mantle and Tresh that broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Yankees their fifth straight triumph. Downing weathered a fourth inning storm and won his ninth in a row with a six-hitter.

Elsewhere in the AL, Juan Pizarro became the league's first 13-game winner as Chicago topped Boston 4-2; Washington nipped Minnesota 4-3; Detroit beat Los Angeles by the same score and Cleveland outlasted Kansas City 9-7.

Mantle lined a single off Miller, making his 38th appearance in relief, with one out in the eighth. Mickey moved to second on a groundout and tallied the deciding run on Tresh's bloop hit to right.

TIED IN SEVENTH

Baltimore had tied the score in the seventh on two walks and Bob Johnson's record-breaking pinch hit single. The hit was Johnson's sixth straight as a pinch swinger, topping the AL mark previously shared by Johnny Mize, Vic Wertz and Bob Hale.

The Orioles scored single runs in the fourth and fifth innings. The Yankees bunched three of their six hits around a walk and infield out for three fourth inning runs.

Baltimore loaded the bases with two out in the ninth on two passes and Luis Aparicio's infield hit but Downing got Norm Siebern on a fly to Mantle for the final out.

ALLOW 5 HITS

Pizarro held the Red Sox to five hits, including Dick Stuart's 18th homer, for eight innings and ran his record to 13-4 with last-inning help from knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm.

Run-scoring hits by Ron Hansen and Gerry McNertney gave the White Sox a 2-0 bulge in the second inning and they added a pair of unearned runs in the third.

The Senators snapped a 3-3 tie in the fifth on Ed Brinkman's single, a two-base throwing error by Minnesota pitcher Jim Kaat and an infield out. Claude Osteen survived Harmon Killebrew's 32nd homer, a two-run shot, and picked up his seventh victory.

WIN 12TH OF 15

Detroit won its 12th game in 15 July starts, scoring the deciding run in the eighth on Gates Brown's double and Don Demeter's single. Demeter also homered and Bill Freehan collected three of 10 Tiger hits.

The board voted to continue the double elimination. It also voted to continue play on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. In the event of rain on Mondays and Wednesdays, the games will be played the following nights.

Should a contest be rained out on Friday, it will be made up on the following Monday and all tournament games will be set back one tournament day.

FINALS HERE

Following a lengthy discussion on the sites for the final tournament games, it was decided to hold the three final contests on the recreation field's Little League diamond in Gettysburg, the site of two previous county finals.

However, next year Littlestown will receive its second turn as host to the tourney and in 1966, Fairfield will be the site of the finals. This year will mark the first for the rotating system.

Should a league decide that it does want to hold the tournament finals, the site will be passed on to the next league until it is accepted.

The board members voted to retain all of the rules, both Little League and local, with the exception of a minor change in the pitching rules. A pitcher will be allowed to pitch in two consecutive games providing he does not pitch in more than seven innings in one week and providing that he has had at least three full days of rest.

Following the first round games, the remaining three leagues will receive at least one tournament game for their diamond. However, should two teams either win or lose in the first round, a flip of the coin will decide where the second round game will be played between the two involved squads.

20-MAN ROSTERS

Again each team will be allowed a 20-man roster, but only 15 players will be allowed to dress for any one particular game.

The Gettysburg All-Stars have been most successful through the first three years of the tourney. Gettysburg has walked off with all three championships including the 1963 title on a 2-0 win over McSherrystown. Littlestown has finished in the runner-up spot twice and McSherrystown once.

Gettysburg has also been the only team to be defeated and then come back through the loser's bracket to cop the title. This occurred last season when McSherrystown defeated Gettysburg 2-0 early in the tourney and the Batfielders came back to defeat New Oxford.

G. Noel Flynn, representative from the Gettysburg Little League was re-elected chairman of this year's board and presided at Tuesday's meeting. All six teams were well represented.

York Springs was invited to enter the tourney but had to decline because of other arrangements. However, they stated that when there is a four-team league organized in that town, they will enter the Adams County play-off. This is expected to be done within the next two years.

The next meeting of the Adams County board will take place on August 18 at the Elks home.

CARDS BEAT DODGERS 8-7 IN 9TH FRAME

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Ron Perranoski, the Dike-Pluggier of the Year in 1963, apparently has run out of fingers. One victory shy of the .500 mark and one out from reaching it, the defending world champion Los Angeles Dodgers were beaten Tuesday night on a two-run pinch-hit single by Bob Skinner that capped a four-run ninth inning uprising and gave the St. Louis Cardinals an 8-7 victory.

And once again, Perranoski, who last year at this time was standing National League batters on their ears enroute to a 16-3 record, wound up standing under the showers. The 27-year-old left-hander put down one uprising in the eighth, but failed in the decisive ninth.

ISSUES 2 WALKS

Walks to Curt Flood and Dick Groat and a single by Ken Boyer gave the Cardinals a run and when Perranoski ran the count on Bill White to 3-0, out he came. Bob Miller completed the walk, Mike Shannon bounced out as a run scored and then Skinner slapped his game-winning home run.

The loss was charged to Perranoski, who has made 36 appearances this season and compiled a 4-5 record with a mediocre 3.52 earned run average. Last year at this stage, he had made 34 appearances and been in 18 winning games with a 9-2 record and a brilliant 1.80 ERA.

5TH STRAIGHT

The victory was the fifth straight for the Cardinals, who in five days have chopped 3½ games off their deficit and climbed to within 7½ games of front-running San Francisco in the tightening NL pennant struggle.

The Giants went down to an 8-7 defeat at Milwaukee as the Braves rode home runs by rookie Rico Carty and veteran Eddie Mathews to their 12th victory in the last 17 games. The Giants, however, retained their one game lead over Philadelphia, 4-3 losers at Pittsburgh.

Third-place Cincinnati closed to within 5½ of the top by sweeping Houston 6-5 in 11 innings and 10-3 and Chicago Cubs defeated the New York Mets 4-2.

CHASE KOUFAX

Sandy Koufax, seeking his 10th straight victory and 14th of the season, started for the Dodgers and batterymate John Roseboro helped build a 5-0 lead by driving in three runs with three singles.

But home runs by Shannon and White cut the deficit before the Cardinals struck for two runs in the eighth and chased Koufax as Manager Walt Alston waived in Perranoski to plug the dike.

Carty and Mathews slugged their homers in the sixth inning as the Braves bombarded 12-game winner Juan Marichal for five runs. After Mathews connected, Marichal made his second error of the game, walked two men and was tagged for a two-run single by Joe Torre that wrapped it up.

MATHEWS HITS 43TH

Mathews' homer, his 12th this season, was No. 434 of his career and broke a tie with the Giants' Willie Mays for eighth place on the alltime list.

Cal McLish, who had been on the disabled list, made his first start for the Phillies and failed to survive the first inning as Manny Mota smacked a single. Roberto Clemente doubled and Jerry Lynch singled.

WILD PITCHER

The Reds scored three runs in the opener on wild pitches, two on consecutive heaves by Larry Yellen and the third in the 11th when Hal Woodeshick uncorked a wild one with the bases loaded that let in the deciding run.

The second game proved much easier against the Colts as the Reds slugged 16 hits, including homers by Frank Robinson and Mel Queen.

Dick Ellsworth won his 11th for the Cubs, despite a five-error third inning that enabled the Mets to score their only runs.

The Chicagoans pulled it out in the seventh with a three-run uprising on doubles by Dick Bertell and Andre Rodgers. Billy Cowan's triple and a single by Joey Amalfitano. Ernie Banks' homer accounted for the first Cub run.

The Elks packed all of their scoring into the fourth inning and defeated the Exchange Club 5-4 Tuesday evening to take over the fourth spot in the league standing.

Jim Ritchie's tremendous home run with two runners aboard highlighted the uprising. George Weikert and Steve Montfort turned in some fine fielding plays for the winners.

Dave Eden and Tim Fazenbaker each rapped a pair of hits for the Exchange.

FILM OF GREECE

The oil, grease and gasoline dripped on the streets by the motors of gasping, fuming old British, American, Hungarian and Czech buses have deposited a thick film of grease on many thoroughfares. At times road-scrappers are used to remove the greasy layer which is dangerously slippery when wet.
Night life is still active in Havana. The cabarets are nearly empty during the week but on Saturday nights many are packed. The biggest, most colorful show in town is at the famed Tropicana. There's no scotch or brandy, but plenty of rum. Beer is served only with meals.
Pasted on a time clock in the National Agrarian Reform Institute is a newspaper clipping. Ike Asks Court To Dismiss Suit

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—City Judge E. H. Foster dropped charges Monday against a young man accused of striking Dwight D. Eisenhower with a placard. The defendant pleaded innocent, saying he had no intention of hitting the former President.

Gen. Eisenhower telegraphed Mayor F. V. Wallace asking that the charge of simple assault against Melvin Phillip Floyd, 23, be dropped.

The placard was tossed onto the train's rear platform from a throng of 700 persons who greeted Mr. Eisenhower on Saturday while he was enroute to the Republican convention in San Francisco.

"I'LL MOVE WHEN I HAVE THE WOUNDED"

Editor's Note—More than 150 U.S. servicemen have died in action against the Viet Cong in South Viet Nam. This is how one of them died.

By PETER ARNETT
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—When Maj. Charles L. Kelly flew his helicopter down to the Mekong River delta seven months ago, he told everyone he met: "We fly anywhere, any time."

This curt phrase, delivered flatly in a Georgia drawl, and his rigorous adherence to it, weaved an aura around the tough, slightly built major.

Kelly, from Sylva, Ga., flew an ambulance helicopter with bright red crosses painted on its sides. He didn't carry a gun, but a medical bag which he sometimes opened to help out hard-pressed doctors flying with him into battle areas.

He was carrying this bag when he flew into a hamlet in Ving Long.

It was within reach when he died there.

MEDICAL DETACHMENT

Kelly commanded the 57th unit charged with flying wounded and dead out of combat zones.

When Kelly, a decorated veteran of World War II, took over the unit it operated only in the day time. But 12 hours of daylight was not enough for Kelly. After arguing with his superior officers he was able to confidently begin saying: "We fly anywhere, any time."

This took Kelly, 40, to every corner of the delta where battles were fought.

Kelly was aware of the dangers he took. Every day he was witness to the inevitable result of battle, the wounded and the dead. This seemed to strengthen his resolve to do all he could to help.

AT NIGHT

He insisted on flying at night in a helicopter. "This way we don't have to carry lights, and can move undetected," he said. More than once he landed his ship by flashlight, flickering it on the ground as he landed.

Often at night, radio operators in distant posts would hear crackling over the radio: "This is old Dustoff (Kelly's code name.) Just passing over. Everything O.K.?"
The call Kelly took at his

Pennsy Closes Columbus Shops

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad has ended heavy repair and monthly maintenance operations at its Columbus locomotive shops, abolishing 170 jobs.

District Supt. A. L. Hunt said about 50 workmen whose jobs were abolished here have taken advantage of an offer to transfer to several openings including Conway, Pa.

He said that part of the repair operation, involving about 300 jobs, will remain in Columbus. The railroad recently abolished about 100 additional jobs at Crestline, with about half the workers involved choosing to transfer to Conway, Pa.

Ambassador Taylor Offers Credentials

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, who arrived one week ago, presented his credentials today to Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, South Vietnamese chief of state.

Taylor, dressed in white sharkskin suit, was accompanied by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, chief of U.S. forces here, and deputy ambassador U. Alexis Johnson in the brief ceremony.

Taylor took formally replaced Henry Cabot Lodge, who returned to Washington last month to campaign for Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton's nomination as Republican presidential candidate.

De Gaulle Leads In Independence Rites

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle, erect and looking fit, today led off the start of Bastille Day celebrations with a military review before thousands lining the Champs Elysees.

Celebrations commemorating the 175th anniversary of the storming of the Bastille—the base July 1 was a routine one. A U.S. adviser had been wounded by a Communist mortar round and needed immediate evacuation.

COMMUNISTS FIRE

Kelly arrived over the location in Ving Long Province and steered his helicopter toward a landing. There had been no Communist fire for some time but as he came in the Communists opened up on his red cross-marked ship with heavy volleys of small arms fire.
"Dustoff, Dustoff," the radio urged. "Take off, take off, small arms fire."
Kelly, maneuvering in for a landing, replied firmly, "I'll move when I have the wounded with me."
They were his last words. A bullet hit him in the chest, killing him instantly. The helicopter rolled over, breaking the leg of the U.S. doctor riding inside.
In a tribute to Kelly, the U.S. weekly paper published in Saigon said: "When Maj. Kelly died, a small part of every man in the delta went with him."

HANDLESS VET ASKS GREATER USE OF ABILITY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The head of the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped wants closer cooperation and teamwork to clear up what he calls the confused status of disabled persons in the nation.

Harold Russell, in addressing the eighth annual Tri-Organization National Scientific and Clinical Conference Monday night, said there is "no universal agreement—as to just what constitutes a disability."

Russell, a handless World War veteran who won an Academy Award in the movie, "The Best Years of Our Lives," called for closer cooperation among doctors, psychologists, physical therapists and occupational services.

He said a "numbers game—the classifying of persons as 50 per cent disabled, 90 per cent disabled and so forth—has slowed the progress we are making with employers to convince them that it's ability, not disability, that counts."

"The point I'm trying to make is that if the problem—disability—is so complex, then the solution—rehabilitation—is equally complicated and demands unified teamwork."

Former Pennsylvania Gov. David L. Lawrence, head of the President's Committee on Equal Opportunity in Housing, also spoke and called for more government involvement in rehabilitation programs.

The Association for Physical and Mental Rehabilitation, the Association for Medical Rehabilitation Director and the American Association for Rehabilitation Therapy are represented at the conference. It ends Friday.

Probe River Where Parts Of 2 Bodies Were Found

By DUDLEY LEHEW
TALLULAH, La. (AP)—Federal, state and local investigators continued to probe a muddy offshoot of the Mississippi River today after the discovery of portions of two bodies.
The almost unrecognizable lower portion of a body was found Monday near the surface of Old River about 17 miles south of this northeast Louisiana town.

The body was taken to the University of Mississippi Medical Center at Jackson, Miss., where a torso found the previous day had been tentatively identified as a former student at all-Negro Alcorn A&M College at Lorman, Miss.

Discovery of the first body touched off speculation that it might be one of the three civil rights workers who mysteriously dropped out of sight June 21 near Philadelphia, Miss.

TRACE EFFECTS

Effects found on the first body were traced to Charles Moore, a Meadville, Miss., Negro whose family said he had left home on May 20 to go to Louisiana to seek work.

Police sources at Jackson said Monday night the second body was believed to be that of Henry Dees, another Meadville Negro who disappeared about two months ago.

Madison Parish Sheriff W. M. Seaman discovered the second body on the Mississippi state side of the sluggish channel, which once was the main branch of the restless Mississippi. It now is a loop with little current except during high water.

Both corpses bore remnants of clothing. The feet of the first were bound with rope. A similar rope was wrapped around the second torso.

PRR HOLDINGS DELAY MERGER OF RAILROADS

NEW YORK (AP)—The fate of the merger of the Norfolk & Western, Wabash, and Nickel Plate railroads appeared to rest today with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Interstate Commerce Commission told the PRR that its holdings in the Norfolk & Western and Wabash Railroads, worth over $400 million, must go before the merger of those two lines with the Nickel Plate (New York, Chicago, and St. Louis) can be accomplished.

Another precondition for that merger, the ICC said Monday, is the acquisition of the Pennsylvania's 100-mile Sandusky Line by the new amalgamation.

Earnings from N & W and Wabash shares have contributed between $18 million and $20 million per year to Pennsy earnings. Stuart T. Saunders, Pennsylvania Railroad chairman, said that at times that revenue may have kept the entire line from bankruptcy.

JEOPARDIZE PLAN

The PRR is, meanwhile, seeking ICC approval for its own merger plans with the New York Central. Refusal to surrender stock holdings would doom the N & W-Wabash-Nickel Plate merger, but also jeopardize the PRR-New York Central plan.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has given the Pennsy until September 17 to agree to dispose of the stock holdings and the Sandusky Line. Saunders has said that hasty divestiture of its N & W interests would severely injure the Pennsy's finances.

In addition to the loss of $20 million in annual dividend income, Saunders maintained, sale of the stock would involve over $50 million in capital gains taxes on growth of the N & W market value. The Sandusky Line, he added, provides $6 million to $7 million in freight revenues.

Hungry Tourist Gets Wrong Bag

HARRISBURG (AP)—Ever order a ham and cheese sandwich to go and get $800 instead?

It occurred Monday to John Beston of Fairton, N.J. on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

It was all an innocent mistake, turnpike officials said. Here's what happened:

Beston entered a restaurant on the turnpike and asked for a ham and cheese sandwich to go. But he picked up the wrong bag at the cash register, containing the restaurant's cash receipts.

On discovering the error, he stopped at the next restaurant and returned the money, laughing: "You can't eat $800."

Asked what he wanted, he tried again: "A ham and cheese sandwich to go."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Husband Slayer Is Barred From Estate

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Ethel Kravitz, convicted of killing her husband, has been barred by the Montgomery County Orphans Court from sharing in his estate.

Mrs. Kravitz, now serving an indeterminate term in the industrial home for women at Muncy, would have received all but $100,000 of the $591,126 estate, according to the will of her husband, Max, who was a realty dealer.

But her second degree murder conviction, under the Pennsylvania Slayers Act of 1940, disqualifies her as an heir.

Judge Alfred E. Taxis cited the act in denying her claim Monday.

JAILED FOR ATTEMPT TO BURN CHURCH

ELM CITY, N.C. (AP)—Two young men were arrested Monday night after an attempt to burn a Negro church which an integrated group started painting today despite warnings from the Ku Klux Klan.

Highway Patrol Maj. C. R. Williams identified the men as Ronnie Howell, 19, and Kenneth Owens, 21, both of Rocky Mount, N.C. Williams said Howell admitted participation in the attempt to burn the First Presbyterian Church, which has eight regular members.

Howell and Owens were charged with conspiracy to commit a felony. They were placed in the Wilson County jail at Wilson under $1,000 bonds.

About 17 members of an interracial group began painting the old church this morning under guard by five highway patrolmen. The patrol said 24 other troopers were on standby basis in the area.

The Ku Klux Klan ran a group of white and Negro teenagers out of Elm City, a small farming community about 60 miles east of Raleigh, when the group announced plans last month to fix up the church and open a Bible school.

Maj. Williams said Deputy Sheriff Dave Daniels and a highway patrolman were hiding at the Negro church when two men emptied a five-gallon can of gasoline on the steps.

Williams said one of the men was about to strike a match when Daniels fired two warning shots and ordered them to halt. The two fled in an auto but were soon caught.

County Youth Is Held After Mishap

A 17-year-old Abbotstown youth was held by York juvenile officers at city hall annex before he was taken to York hospital for X-rays and treatment of injuries after an accident.

Hospital officials said at 1 a.m. today that X-ray emanation of the youth was negative, but that he was being retained overnight for further observation and treatment of bruises.

Hospital officials said the youth was X-rayed for possible injuries of the skull, jaw, ribs and right leg after he was taken to the hospital at 12:15 a.m. by Juvenile Officer Wilbur Spills.

Police allege that the youth had taken a sedan from the York-towne parking lot, York.

The auto was recovered at 10:20 Monday night at Clarke Ave. and George St. by three city policemen, who took the youth into custody.

The auto, which had had keys left in it, is owned by James R. and Sherry B. Irvin, Glen Rock.

U.S. Route 30, Now A Main Highway, Had Major Role In American History

Editor's note: U. S. Route 30 across southern Pennsylvania is probably one of the most historic roads in the United States. But lately it has been the object of much criticism. Some call it a death trap. Others advocate construction of a new road to replace it. Many demand reconstruction and relocation. The state is already planning renovations that will keep Route 30 one of the most heavily traveled arteries in Pennsylvania. Here is a brief look at the history of this vital roadway.

By DAVE LEHERR
Associated Press Writer
HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—From a dusty Indian trail, it grew to the nation's first major transcontinental highway, steeped in history and the lore of the past.

You can almost hear the echo of footsteps of the early settlers and trappers, or the rumble of Conestoga wagons.

Here, too, marched military men to combat, first in the French and Indian War, then in the Revolution, and finally the Battle of Gettysburg.

IMPORTANT ARTERY

Prior to the American Independence, this was the most important artery linking the colonies along the Atlantic seaboard with the uncharted lands beyond the Allegheny Mountains.

This is the story of that road, historic old U. S. 30, known best from New York City to San Francisco as the "Lincoln Highway."

Route 30 has had many names since the days of the Delaware Indians and the "Allegheny Path" leading from the village of Chief Shackamaxon near Philadelphia over rolling mountains to the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers in the west.

It was the principal transmountain route of the crown colonies because of the strategic location of William Penn's province.

OLDEST SECTION

The oldest section of the fabled Lincoln Highway is the "King's Highway" or the "Provincial Road," constructed in the 1730s from Philadelphia to Lancaster and setting the stage for westerly expansion.

Years later, General John Forbes was to use the "Provincial Road" on his long march from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh to capture Fort Duquesne from the French at the forks of the Ohio.

Even today, roadside markers tell the story of this great military expedition which played a vital role in the French and Indian War.

"PENNSYLVANIA ROAD"

With the advent of the Revolution, the continental war office again recognized the importance of this strategic route as the main military artery to the west and designated it the "Pennsylvania Road." It was to be the first state highway authorized by the Pennsylvania legislature under the official name of the "Western Road to Pittsburgh."

The "Pennsylvania Road" served as the lifeline between Philadelphia, York and Lancaster, the nation's three capitals during the Revolution.

One hundred years later, this same road played another part in another war. The gray-clad confederate armies of General Robert E. Lee and the blue-unformed troops of the Union had marched to destiny at the Battle of Gettysburg.

LANCASTER PIKE

The first major step toward Route 30 as it is today came in the 1790s with the construction of the Lancaster Pike, opening a new chapter in road building history.

The 62-mile pike was the first long-distance road ever built in the U. S. with a stone and gravel surface. The total cost was $465,000—an average of about $7,500 a mile. What a contrast, with current interstate highways which run close to $1 million a mile. Tolls were collected for the first time.

The idea of a transcontinental "Lincoln Highway" was born on Sept. 12, 1912. Carl G. Fisher of the auto body building family, told a group of auto manufacturers about a dream—a vision of a vast transcontinental road connecting the Atlantic and the Pacific. His listeners were enthusiastic.

RAISE $4 MILLION

Within a short time, $4 million had been raised toward construction. The first formal meeting of the "Lincoln Highway Association" was held at Detroit on July 1, 1913. The widespread patriotic appeal of President Abraham Lincoln was responsible for the name "Lincoln Highway."

Construction on the first section of the new cross-country roadway was started in July of 1912 in Lake County, Indiana. It was only one and third miles long and cost $166,655, but it was a beginning. Cars were limited to 35 miles an hour, trucks to 10 miles an hour.

By World War I the Lincoln Highway was America's best known road, considered one of the great arterial routes in the world.

SPANS CONTINENT

Today, most of the old "Lincoln Highway" continues to span the continent as U. S. 30. From New York City to Philadelphia, it is U. S. 1, at Philadelphia it becomes U. S. 30 again to Chicago. From Chicago to Omaha Neb., it becomes Interstate 80. Westward from Omaha, it continues as Interstate 80 to San Francisco, while U. S. 30 proceeds north to Portland, Oregon.

According to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, the old Lincoln Highway still ranks as one of the nation's front-line roads in the federal aid primary system.

In Pennsylvania, too, it stands as one of the most vital and heavily traveled roads, despite the Pennsylvania Turnpike and a heavy barrage of criticism in the past few years.

You can still see one or two of the red, white and blue markers with metal profiles of Abe Lincoln, placed along the road in 1928 by Boy Scouts.

The Lincoln Highway, as it is known in Pennsylvania, extends from Philadelphia through Coatesville, Lancaster, Columbia, York, Gettysburg, Chambersburg, Bedford, Ligonier, Greensburg, Pittsburgh and the west.

PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE

With the opening of the Pennsylvania Turnpike in 1940, the average daily traffic on Route 30 dropped as much as 48 per cent. But by 1950, the "Old Indian Trail" was well on its way to a comeback.

Still, the criticism is heavy. An effort was started this year in the state legislature to promote construction of a brand new interstate highway across southern Pennsylvania which in essence would replace U. S. 30. Other lawmakers called for reconstruction and relocation of the existing route.

BERLIN (AP)—The U. S. Army says it has lodged a "strong protest" with Soviet authorities over the slapping of an American officer by an East German border guard.

The officer, who was not identified, followed standing instructions and did not retaliate, an Army spokesman said.

The apparently unprovoked incident Sunday outraged American officers in West Berlin.

The Army spokesman said the officer was riding in an Army sedan in East Berlin when an East German border patrol halted him near Checkpoint Charlie.

The patrol told the American and his companions to leave the area. The officer protested that they were not in a restricted

STATE GUARD RECEIVES HIGH CAMP RATINGS

CAMP A. P. HILL, Va. (AP)—Pennsylvania's 28th Infantry Division opened its annual summer camp this week with a bang.

Statistics released Tuesday by regular army evaluators showed the Keystone state guard unit receiving 67 superior ratings and 463 excellent ratings from a total of 600 inspections on opening day.

The evaluators will continue to rate the performances of the various guard units throughout the remainder of the two-week summer session both here and at Camp Pickett in Southern Virginia.

Units displaying outstanding performance on Monday included the 1st Howitzer Battalion.

109th Artillery, Wilkes-Barre, commanded by Lt. Col. Fletcher C. Booker Jr., Dallas; and the 1st Battalion, 112th Infantry, Erie, commanded by Lt. Col. Spencer F. Wurst, Erie.

CAMP PICKETT

The artillery unit training at Camp Pickett, scored 10 superiors and 20 excellents in 30 inspections. The infantry unit here had nine superiors and eight excellents in 27 inspections.

Highlight of Tuesday's training was a tank-infantry maneuver, directed by Lt. Harry E. Ross of Camp Hill, commander of Company B, Second Tank Battalion. More than 100 infantry men, 12 tanks, and four armored personnel carriers took part in the exercise.

The big event today was "Exercise Pick-Hill", a command post exercise involving all units at Camp A. P. Hill, along with the artillery and armor units at Camp Pickett.

SCHOOLS IN 3 MISS. TOWNS TO INTEGRATE

By ED MCCUSKER

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Two school boards have submitted plans to a federal judge to desegregate first grade classrooms in the fall, signaling the end of Mississippi's holdout as the last state without school integration below the college level.

A third board was expected to join the school systems of Jackson and Biloxi today in telling U. S. Dist. Judge Sidney Mize how it would obey his desegregation orders.

"We have our plan in hand," said John T. Loggan Jr., superintendent of rural Leake County. "We are all set."

LEAKE COUNTY

Leake County is the birthplace of former Gov. Ross R. Barnett, who twice physically blocked Negro James H. Meredith from enrolling at the University of Mississippi in 1962.

Judge Mize, 75, a native Mississippian, had given the school boards of Jackson, Biloxi and Leake County until today to submit plans for desegregation.

The Jackson and Biloxi boards filed their plans a day early. They were identical. Another Mississippi city, Clarksdale in the heavily Negro populated delta region, is under federal court orders to submit a desegregation within 15 days

Scranton's Campaign To Unseat Barry Lacks Fire

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—This Republican convention has all the usual—bands, singing, too many speeches—and no fire, thanks to the man with the extinguisher, Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Two things looked certain before the delegates got here: that Goldwater had the presidential nomination locked up and Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton had no chance for it. Every time Scranton tried to light a match it got squirted with silence, or near-silence, by the highly confident, well-oiled Goldwater organization.

STRATEGY OBVIOUS
The attitude and the strategy were obvious enough: Why get Scranton any more attention by arguing with him?

There's no sign Scranton has been able to inflame the delegates from the time he announced his opposition to Goldwater last June 12. On the contrary, his bid for the nomination so far has looked extremely inept and futile.

This is an example:
Sunday night, the convention eve, Goldwater received a letter over Scranton's signature in contemptuous language which the governor himself now says was "too strong." Goldwater was angry. But Goldwater's aides played it cool.

COPY OF LETTER
They sent a copy of the letter to every delegate and alternate delegate in the belief it would backfire against Scranton. They attached a note from Goldwater's campaign manager, Denison Kitchell, who said the letter "tragically" reflected on the party and the convention.

But Monday Scranton said he didn't compose the letter, and an aide said the governor hadn't seen it before it went to Goldwater. But Scranton said he is responsible for the letter, nevertheless.

By the time Scranton had decided to get into the contest in June, after wrestling with himself, Goldwater already had enormous delegate strength. He had been building it for 3½ years. Scranton had only about six weeks before the convention to undo it.

MAIN ARGUMENT
His main argument for getting into the race, of course, had to be that Goldwater was not the man for the nomination. To be convincing he would have had to show a vast difference between him and Goldwater or a real danger in Goldwater.

Instead, he started off politely, got impolite, got polite again. It was an on-and-off performance. It seemed uncertain. In short, what he waged was anything but a fierce, all-out fight. Finally, he worked up to calling Goldwater unfit for the presidency.

Meanwhile he put great reliance—or appeared to—in the hope that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower would work the necessary magic of swinging delegates to him by coming out in his support.

HENRY CABOT LODGE
This kind of impression was further built up by Henry Cabot Lodge after a talk with Eisenhower. Lodge announced he had quit his job as U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam to come home to help Scranton win.

The former president chilled all this by insisting he was staying neutral.

So Scranton lost what might have been his best bet for influencing the delegates. What good, if any, Lodge was ever able to do for Scranton isn't clear at this writing.

Just before the convention, Scranton was so obviously not making progress in winning delegates for himself or weaning them away from Goldwater that he went out to Illinois and started shaking hands with commuters in a railroad station.

ILLINOIS STRATEGY
But most of the Illinois delegates had already lined up with Goldwater. So what was Scranton doing shaking hands with commuters? He explained it was to convince Illinois Republicans to put the heat on the delegates to join up with Scranton. It didn't work.

If Scranton still hoped that somehow Eisenhower might help him, he got his final disillusionment Monday as the convention opened, and Eisenhower held a news conference. He said he wouldn't endorse anyone.

A Lovelier You

TEENS GO LONG-HAIR. A teen lovely writes: I want to wear my hair real long and straight, as the other girls are doing. It's short now and waves.

in the wrong places. How can I get it to grow fast and keep it straight?

The answer: Normally, hair grows at the rate of one-half inch a month—six inches in a year. And there's little you can do to hurry nature.

If growth is abnormally slow, however, several measures promise to speed the process. Vitamin A, taken in the form of orange or tomato juice, is a help. Protein foods, such as meat and milk, also aid the cause.

Proper brushing and conditioning act as external prods. Proper brushing means bending over from the waist and stroking with a clean, medium-bristle brush. Conditioning takes several forms, depending on individual needs.

For an oily or disturbed scalp, the requirement is a medicated shampoo. Otherwise mild, neutral suds work well. For split, broken ends, an end-trim is necessary. Protecting the hair from sizzling sun promotes growth, simply because it prevents dry rot.

As for the curly problem, it just may take care of itself. The longer hair grows, the straighter it is apt to hang—from sheer weight. If the ends flip, fret not. The long-hair set is spending a good deal of effort on end-flipping perms.

TO REPORT ON SALE OF FIRM

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department expects by mid-August a report from its seven-man advisory committee on the time, terms and manner for sale of the General Aniline & Film Corp. to private enterprise.

Formation of the committee was announced on June 9 by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and a department spokesman said its recommendations probably will be made to Kennedy in one month.

The committee's job is to recommend a recapitalization for the multi-million dollar firm which was seized by the government during World War II as German property.

If accepted by the Justice Department, the plan would be submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission for approval, after which the department would invite bids for sale of General Aniline's stock.

It will be three months ago on Wednesday since a U.S. district Court judge removed one of the last remaining legal roadblocks to the sale.

Judge David A. Pine on April 15 lifted an injunction which barred the department and a Swiss holding company, Interhandel, from carrying out an agreement they reached last year to settle the 20-year-old dispute over ownership of the firm.

YANK GRID STAR TO BE CANADIAN

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—Dick Fouts, a former Missouri football star, took steps Tuesday to become a Canadian. The British Columbia Lions, in turn granted the 31-year-old player an extended contract with the Canadian Football League club.

An application by Fouts before the citizenship court here was approved. It was to be sent to Ottawa for approval of the Minister of Citizenship and Immigration.

Herb Capozzi, general manager of the Western Football Conference team, said it was hoped the defensive end would be eligible to play as a Canadian in the Lions' season opener Aug. 4. This would allow the club to add another American to its roster.

The U.S. Marine Corps was established on July 11, 1798.

RATES REDUCED AGAIN FOR ELECTRIC HOME HEATING AND ALL-ELECTRIC LIVING!

It's always good news when costs go down. And for families with electrically-heated homes, this is the third substantial rate reduction in the last six years! Since the first electric heat installation in this area—these three big rate reductions have amounted to an average of 23.5%!

The present reduction provides an annual saving of about one month's budget bill. You couldn't ask for better evidence that it's now more practical than ever to give your family the advantages of electric heat and all-electric living.

No other heating system can provide all the benefits you get with electric heat. It's absolutely unequalled for comfort—flexibility—cleanliness—safety—and trouble-free operation. And remember this. In the last six years, no other cost has gone down as much as the cost of electricity! There's never been a better time to find out why all-electric living is modern living!

Call your nearest Metropolitan Edison Company office to find out how little electric heat will cost for your home.

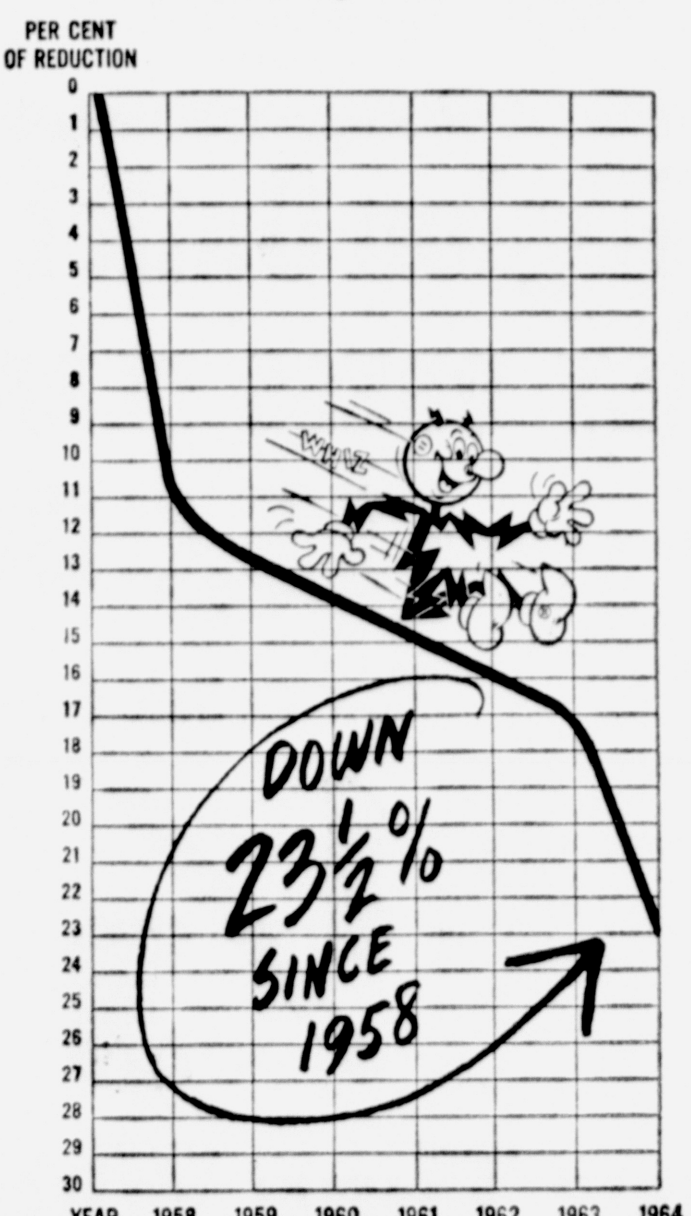

Here's A Typical Example Of Savings

This example, representing a typical electric heating customer, shows how much the cost of all-electric living has come down in only six years.

Year	Annual Savings
1958	$57.76
1963	21.80
1964 (NEW RATE)	33.90

Today this family pays $113.46 less for electricity than in 1958!

Electric Rates Go Down—Down—Down! Average 23.5% Reduction For Electric Home Heating And All-Electric Living Since 1958!

Most Other Living Costs Have Gone Up—Up—Up! No Other Cost Has Gone Down As Much As Electricity!

Lunar Clock Now Available For Earth's First Travelers

Editor's note: Will the first earth men on the moon be able to adjust to a day that is equal to 29½ earth days? An astronomer and a space-age electronics expert think a "moon clock" is the answer, so they devised and built one. This AP State Spotlight tells about this clock and gives some fascinating glimpses into the future—including a device that produces hot or cold air and plays hi-fi music without a moving part.

By CECILIA LYNETT
Associated Press Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—What time will the first earth men on the moon go by? Pacific standard? Eastern Daylight?

That's perhaps a silly question, but there is a real problem—at least as top scientists see it—in getting a man from earth adjusted to time on the moon.

Man has had a biological clock built into him since his evolution. As he goes about his daily activities, his metabolism is geared to a 24-hour day.

Space medicine doctors are concerned with the lunar explorer's ability to adapt to conditions in which day and night, as we know them on earth, do not exist. For most of us, daytime and nighttime regulate our activities.

"MOON CLOCK"

We awaken in the morning after a certain period of sleep, get hungry and eat at more or less the same time each day and for the most part, schedule our activities on the basis of time.

How will man adapt himself to conditions on the moon where one lunar day equals 29½ earth days?

A "moon clock"—Adjusted so that time on the moon can be computed exactly into the same period as time on earth—is the answer, in the opinion of Dr. I. M. Levitt, astronomer and director of Philadelphia's Fels Planetarium.

Decker built the moon clock. He feels it demonstrates the necessity for a time piece to be given to our astronauts when they become lunar explorers so that they may correlate moon time with earth time.

TWO DIALS

The Decker Space Clock has two dials showing the Greenwich time on earth and the local time for a particular point on the moon.

The position of the sun at any moment, even when it is below the horizon during the lunar night, is shown on a scale which marks off the 29½ lunar days to one earth day.

The position of the sun is marked by a sunburst, and from this point the altitude of the sun during the course of the month and the time to sunrise, along with the position of the sun, is indicated.

A rotating earth is shown spinning once on its axis in 24 hours and around the rotating earth is a device designed to show the phase of the earth as seen from the moon.

ANOTHER FEATURE

A calendar is incorporated in the clock to show the date on the earth which will also be considered the date on the moon.

EX - CONVICT GETS $20,000

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A U. S. District court judge in Pittsburgh has signed an order awarding $20,000 in damages to an ex-convict injured in a fall in the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg.

The order was in favor of Stephen Demko, 34, of the city's Squirrel Hill section. It was signed Tuesday by Judge Wallace S. Gourley.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Stanley Greenfield said an appeal will be filed on the grounds that the award is excessive.

Demko sued the U. S. Government after he fell while installing a plate glass window in the penitentiary in 1962. Demko said he was working on a ledge when he fell 37 feet, suffering multiple injuries of the right foot and a back injury.

Demko, who was serving a 2½-year term on a conviction for the interstate transfer of forged checks, was released 18 months ago.

TORONTO (AP)—Louis Rosenfeld, 68, who rose in the movie business from theater usher to president of Columbia Pictures of Canada, Ltd., died in a Toronto hospital Monday following two months' illness.

clock is a longitude correction disk which shows the corrections to be applied to the lunar day of one travels east or west over the surface of the moon.

Decker said the objective of the moon clock is to present a visual display for these first astronauts which will permit them to know the aspect of the sky, adding:

"We built the Decker Space clock to provide a springboard to what will be an important task in the immediate future. We believe that with this clock as the starting point, other clocks will evolve for use on the moon and our efforts in fabricating this pilot model will be well rewarded."

COSTS THOUSANDS

The cost? Decker said there would be no way to correctly estimate this "but it would be in the thousands of dollars, maybe even hundreds of thousands of dollars" if a full cost basis was placed on all the work and scientific know-how that went into it. Decker, who founded the firm in 1951, has an understanding of science and a little science training, but his major at the University of California was business administration.

"I saw the jet age on a drawing board when I was in the service," he said, "I was convinced that the world's future lay in electronics."

Primarily, his corporation works with electronic instrumentation. Lately, however, the scientists have been doing brain research, and research in the control of air pollution, which Decker calls "the nation's number one killer."

Decker plans to present the first moon clock, which is currently on a world tour with Dr. Levitt, to the president of the United States. He said he would like to distribute about 25 others to schools throughout the country.

Decker thinks the Americans will be the first nation to reach the moon, and "we will be up there within the next two or three years."

Frederic Cox, vice president of the Metropolitan Edison Company and manager of the western division, today announced that the recently constructed distribution center on the Littlestown Rd., at Mt. Joy, increases the load carrying capacity available in that area five times. The new station has a rating of 3,000 KVA. This expansion was necessary to take care of the increasing tourist trade kilowatt load caused by the many new motels, restaurants and residential usage. This station serves approximately 800 customers.

William Lentz, district manager for the Gettysburg area, said that the 13,200-volt automatic sectionalizing switches installed here assures both the distribution customers and the large industrial customer, Teeter's quarry, of continuity of service.

Also, the distribution lines leading from this new station have been improved, modernized and in some cases new lines constructed to take care of any future growth in that area.

ATTITUDE AIDS YOUNG ACTORS TO ADULTHOOD

Editor's Note — The fine actress who moved from a sensitive portrayal of young Helen Keller on the stage to film versions of "The Miracle Worker," to a popular television comedy series writes here of a young actress' problem which, curiously, seems to have skipped her completely and tells how she avoided a brief, compulsory "retirement."

By PATTY DUKE
(for Cynthia Lowry)

NEW YORK (AP)—I think the awkward age is just a state of mind. I don't believe that child actors need fear that land somewhere on the other side of limbo where they are supposed to disappear while waiting to outgrow the awkward years.

Work and a positive attitude can help the young actor overcome his or her youth.

I'm very aware that waiting to mature can be the most tiresome and unnerving time in the life of a young actor or actress. The main reason, aside from the fact that the individual may be changing physically, is that there are not many parts written for 14-to-18-year-olds. When a role does come along for a 16-year-old, they more than likely look for someone who is around 20 who can play down to 16.

ATTITUDE

However, I think an actor's attitude can make a big difference. The only example I can give is myself. When I was 16 I didn't feel particularly awkward nor did I feel that my career was going through a transitional stage. On the contrary, I felt that I was standing on the threshold of my career. All that was uppermost in my mind was to continue working and learning how to become a better actress.

So, instead of waiting for the right part to come along, my manager, John Ross, and I kept on the lookout for something worth doing. Thus when the opportunity for me to do a comedy series on television presented itself it seemed to us that here was the next logical step in my career. It was a challenge worth facing.

It turned out to be one of the most exciting years I have ever experienced. Of course, the fact that "The Patty Duke Show" was so well received by all our

Issue Orders On New Textbooks

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Board of Public Education's staff is under orders to reject all future textbooks which fail to represent an integrated society.

The board issued this order to its staff Tuesday. It singled out for criticism books in the field of social study, particularly those on personal and family living and child development.

William H. Rea, school board president, said the latest books "show no evidence" of dealing with integration.

Dr. Sidney P. Marland Jr., school superintendent, recommended continued pressure on publishers to abandon "the lily white" contents of textbooks and modify them to deal realistically with civil rights.

3 KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

ANSBACH, Germany (AP)—A Boeing 720 jet airliner of West Germany's Lufthansa Airlines crashed today on a test flight, killing all three persons aboard.

Police at this Bavarian town southwest of Nuernberg said the plane crashed into a wooded area about 2 miles from a U.S. Army air strip at Kettelsbach.

"We must presume that the pilot was attempting an emergency landing there," a police spokesman here said.

He said the three bodies had been recovered.

A Lufthansa spokesman said the three persons were employees of the West German airline.

The airliner had taken off from Frankfurt for a test flight and was to return to Frankfurt without landing elsewhere.

Lufthansa said it had no indication of the cause of the crash.

television friends added to my pleasure.

SECOND SEASON

I've learned many things since Patty and Cathy Lane (my television alter egos) joined the airwaves—mostly in the acting area.

As "The Patty Duke Show" moves into its second season I can't help but hope that the series goes on an awfully long time so that I can make the transition from a teen-ager to an adult without any break or gap in my career.

I'm hoping that this will take care of my awkward years.

JOHN B. RICH INDICTED FOR TAX EVASION

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—John B. Rich, Pottsville coal executive has been indicted for federal income tax evasion of more than $82,000.

Rich's name first entered the news when a safe in his home was robbed in August, 1959, while the family was on vacation. Police and state witnesses have said that as much as $478,000 was stolen. Rich, however, maintains that only $3,000 or so in cash and $17,000 in jewelry was taken.

The jury also indicted Rich's son, John W., 40, and Geary C. Hower, of Mahanoy City, and Rich on charges of evading $143,639 in corporate income taxes for 1958 and 1959.

Rich is president of the Gilberton Coal Co., his son the vice president, and Hower the chief clerk.

$10,000 BAIL

Judge A. Leon Higginbotham set bail at $10,000 for the 71-year-old Rich, and $5,000 for the two others.

Three men have already been sentenced to prison terms in the 1959 robbery. The appeals of the three, John Berkery, Robert Poulson, and Ralph Staino Jr., are pending.

Lillian Reis, a 34-year-old former night club operator here, was convicted of masterminding the burglary at her second trial last April. Her first trial ended in a deadlocked jury. Miss Reis has also appealed her conviction.

After he was indicted in federal court Tuesday, Rich said, "The indictments are based on corporate records and book-keeping transactions. There are no allegations of money or funds not shown in the business records or bank deposits."

Chevy Chase Village, Md., was one of the first planned suburban communities in the United States.

Cuba Orders Guards For Fishing Boats

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—One of the last avenues of escape from Communist Cuba—fishing boats—may be sealed off by a new regulation requiring guards to accompany fishermen, a newly arrived exile said today.

The refugee, Gilberto Hernandez, 23, said he and seven companions fled in a fishing boat shortly before the decree became effective.

CAIRO (AP)—Premier Moise

Tshombe of the Congo, due here by Thursday for an African summit conference, has been told he isn't wanted.

Foreign ministers of the African nations at a meeting Tuesday decided to inform Congolese

President Joseph Kasavubu that

Tshombe's presence would be

"undesirable."

The decision at a two-hour secret meeting was not unanimous. Nigeria and several other nations opposed it. Ghana, Algeria and Uganda led the fight against the former secessionist leader of Katanga province who returned from self-exile to head

a new Congolese government.
